SECTION II: TERMS OF REFERENCE (TOR)

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR A CONSULTANCY TO CONDUCT A STUDY ON THE SOCIAL NORMS AND VALUES THAT SUPPORT NON-VIOLENCE PRACTICES AGAINST WOMEN AND CHILDREN IN TANZANIA

Background

The United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) is the United Nations sexual and reproductive health agency. Our mission is to deliver a world where every pregnancy is wanted, every childbirth is safe and every young person's potential is fulfilled. UNFPA's mandate is grounded in and fully aligned with the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development and the Sustainable Development Agenda 2030. UNFPA has committed to the realization of three transformative results by 2030: End unmet need for family planning; End preventable maternal deaths and End gender-based violence and harmful practices.

The United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) works to save children's lives, to defend their rights, and to help them fulfil their potential, from early childhood through to adolescence.

In partnership with the Ministry of Health, Community Development, Gender, Elderly and Children and with support from IRISH AID, UNFPA and UNICEF are implementing a joint project that is responding to the priorities of the National Plan of Action to End Violence Against Women and Children (NPA-VAWC) 2017/18 – 2021/22 by targeting two specific intervention areas that have been identified as priorities under the NPA-VAWC, that is, Thematic Area 2: Norms and Values and Thematic Area 5: Implementation and Enforcement of Laws.

The project is looking at the existence of social-cultural norms, values and practices that have delivered attitudinal, gender norms and behavioral change in supporting non violence against women and children; and with respect to the implementation and enforcement of laws, the project is aimed at identifying where are the capacity needs and gaps in responding to VAWC cases; and what can be done to enhance the accountability of the legal system to effectively respond to VAWC

The major expected outcomes of the project are to:

- Promote norms and values that empowers women and children and support non-violence practices; and
- Improve access and protection of women and children through the legal system.

The project is focused on the regions of Mara, Manyara, Dodoma, Kigoma, Mbeya, Tanga, and Mwanza in mainland and in Zanzibar.

Purpose of the consultancy

In line with the goals of the project, UNFPA is seeking the services of a consultancy firm to collect and analyze data that will help UNFPA, UNICEF, IRISH AID and the government to enhance the performance of the mentioned regions in planning and programming to address VAWC through social-cultural norms change and legal protection.

Objectives of the Desk Review and Targeted Study

Specifically, the study will as follows undertake the following phases

(1) Desk review (Global and Country)

- Identify effective, replicable models for legal protection and access to justice.

(2) Targeted Study ( 7 Regions and Zanzibar)

- Assess gender transformative initiatives that have led to positive change in social norms, values and behaviors that support non-violence practices against women and children.

Scope of Work

The consultancy firm is expected to:

1. Conduct a Desk review on existing, global evidence to identify effective interventions that lead to gender transformative shifts and changes in social-cultural norms, values, and practices that prevent VAWC.
2. Assess, as a priority, existing interventions in the selected geographical focus which includes, but is not limited to, life skills based programmes that seek to empower girls and women with effective assets and agency as well as community mobilization, engagement with men, boys, traditional and religious leaders, and social and behavior change programmes to address the underlying social-cultural norms, values, and practices that lead to VAWC. The assessment will also look at interventions to increase access to formal systems of legal protection and justice, such as police gender and children's desks, which are now responding to harmful practices of FGM, child marriage and gender based violence and violence against children generally.
3. Identify methodologies and tools for rigorous measurement of gender transformative shifts and changes in social-cultural norms, values and practices that prevent VAWC, using qualitative methods.
4. Provide concrete suggestions on how interventions that have been found effective can be documented and standardized in such a way that they can be successfully replicated and brought to scale by duty bearers such as Social Welfare Officers and Community Development Officers, while ensuring that their quality is retained.
5. Ensure that the assessment integrates interventions that leverage on innovation, e.g. by engaging with non-traditional actors and using technology to ensure no one is left behind.
6. The consultant is expected to ensure the report adapts global evidence and localizes this through research, to highlight the urgency of ending harmful practices by highlighting the intersections of gender discrimination and climate change and population growth.
7. Finally, the consultant is expected to present findings at a stakeholder's meeting with government and partners implementing programmes to address VAWC
